Five Maltese students at the European Institute of Education received their Masters degrees from the University of Leicester, during a graduation ceremony held in Leicester, UK.

They are Michelle Spiteri Bailey, who graduated Master of Business Administration (Finance); Antoine Galea - Master of Business Administration (Total Quality Management); Thomas Dimech - Master of Business Administration (Marketing); Franco Azzopardi - MSc Finance and Martin Bugelli - MA Mass Communications.

The students were presented with their degree certificates by Sir Peter Williams, Chancellor of the University of Leicester. Antonello Cappitta, director of courses at the European Institute of Education, accompanied the students in Leicester.

The institute is licensed by the Ministry of Education as a tertiary level institution of the European University Switzerland. It is currently recruiting students for both the EU MBA and the Leicester MBA, April intake. The institute can be contacted at eie@inmalta.net or via telephone on 2142 4021.
